

Homework #0Due Tuesday, February 8 in Gradescope by 11:59 pm ET

- Explore the webpage for Math 280:
 - Find the Zoom Class and Zoom Office Hour and Dropbox (video) links.
 - Bookmark and explore the main Math 280 Course Page:
<https://rlbenedetto.people.amherst.edu/math280/>
(It is also linked from the moodle page.)
 - Read the Syllabus.
- Read the handout on Gradescope Instructions for submitting work in Math 280.
 - Join Math 280 on your existing Gradescope account (or create an account if you don't have one yet, and join Math 280 on it) using those instructions and the listed Course Entry Code. This may take some time, so please plan ahead.

If you have any questions about anything, please e-mail me:Professor Rob Benedetto*`rlbenedetto@amherst.edu`

- Answer the following seven questions, which extend onto the next page.

You can write your answers anywhere on paper or you can write them on a tablet if you have one. Scan or save the answers as a .pdf. Using the Gradescope instructions, upload the .pdf answers into Gradescope into the Homework 0 entry.

Don't forget to tag your problems on Gradescope, to indicate which page(s) of your submitted PDF each problem's solution can be found on.

1. Have you explored the main Math 280 Course Page?

YES _____ NO _____

2. Have you bookmarked the main Math 280 Course Page?

YES _____ NO _____

3. Have you read the Syllabus (found on the main Math 280 webpage)?

YES _____ NO _____

4. What dates are the (in-class, closed-book) midterm exams scheduled for?
5. If another student helped you on your problem set, what should you do, according to the ground rules described in the syllabus?
6. Near the bottom of page two of the course syllabus, there is a four-word phrase in a box. What is it?
7. The Honor Code is serious. Do you understand the expectations for Academic Honesty and the consequences of copying work? In particular, do you understand that if you either copy someone else's work, or let someone else copy your work, you will get an F in the course, and worse?

YES _____ NO _____